A luxury coach will then transport guests to the Mpumalanga village of Graskop for checking in to the well appointed Mogodi Lodge, perched on the edge of the Drakensberg escarpment, with views over the Lowveld. En route to Mogodi, the coach will stop at the famous Milly's trout farm for lunch. Dinner and breakfast will be served in the Mogodi Lodge dining room every day during the stay at Mogodi.

After breakfast on day 3, guests will be taken to the Kruger Park for the day, entering the park at the Phabeni gate, to enjoy the benefit of game viewing from a vehicle, which, because of its height, has viewing advantage over other vehicles in the park. The viewing route will follow the road along the Sabi River to Lower Sabi Camp for lunch. After lunch guests will return to Mogodi Lodge for dinner and overnight.

On day 6 guests will return to Lanseria airport via the majestic Long Tom Pass, and the quaint village of Dullstroom for lunch.
